Quatuor Anches Hantées

The Quatuor Anches Hantées is bold and fearless!

Creating an ensemble with no repertoire and no clarinet quartet as a reference is daring; developing it and helping it flourish for 25 years into what it is today is exhilarating! The QAH has climbed every step to become the unique quartet it is today.

From the village halls and churches of its beginnings to the Salle Cortot, Salle Gaveau, Montpellier, Tours and Clermont-Ferrand Operas, Arsenal de Metz, Maison de la Radio, and TV experiences on Arte and France 2, the QAH has accomplished phenomenal work.

Today, in its vibrant third decade, the Quatuor Anches Hantées combines youth, experience, and artistic maturity. It has now found its place and stands as a true bridge between tradition and modernity.

The Quatuor Anches Hantées is more than just a clarinet quartet: it can transform itself into a string quartet, a piano duo, a four-hand piano, or even an orchestra! But beyond that, the QAH is an artistic project and a human adventure, ambitious yet deeply accessible.
